DEDICATION

Occasionally with the roar of a lion, but usually with the gentle kindness of a lamb, you--Mr. William Ball--have for the past fourteen years, demonstrated your willingness to forego personal self-interests in order to serve your school, your community, and your church. National recognition in the field of science, state acclaim in Student Council leadership, local honors in athletics attest not only to your devotion to duty but also to your understanding of and love for all youth. For your timely sense of humor, your endless patience, your unselfish work for the class of 1964, we respectfully dedicate to you--our principal--this Yearbook.

In Memoriam

Class History

FRESHMAN YEAR--Carol Stone

In September of 1960, sixty-five freshmen entered Charlton High School for a four-year journey which would end with the class trip to Washington, D.C., and graduation.

Thirty-five freshmen were placed in Room I, with Mrs. Mabel B. Fiske as advisor; twenty-seven, Room 7, with Mr. Gerald Ryan; and three, in the agricultural department with Mr. John Chambers. The class officers for the year were president-Linda Leighton; vice-president-Pat Vesey; secretary-Carol Stone; treasurer-Julie Miller.

Honor Roll students for the year included Mary Lou Hunt, Linda Leighton, Carol Smeltzer, and Carol Stone with High Honors; and Brian Dunn, Kathy Harrison, Royal Langlois, Pat Nickless, Julie Miller, Donna Russell, Pat Moulton, and Pat Vesey with Honors.

The major social event was our successful Freshman Hop. We also greatly increased our treasury by winning the annual magazine drive.

All too soon the first quarter of our four-year journey was completed, but we were happy in thoughts of the next lap of our journey beginning in September.

SOPHOMORE YEAR--Mary Lou Hunt

In September, 1961, we began the second year of our high school journey. Of our fifty-seven members we lost Richard Ramsey, Ernest Langlois, and Michael Cavanaugh. Also Ronald McGlinchey and Richard Mondor transferred to Cole Trade School, Southbridge. However, Richard Bessette, George Parker, and Brad Mantha joined the class during the year.

Our officers were president-Linda Leighton; vice-president-Patricia Vesey; secretary-Carol Smeltzer; treasurer-Julie Miller; and representative from Room I-Ellen Boudreau.

On April 27, 1962, we held a most successful Sophomore Hop.

We were very proud of Carol Smeltzer, Mary Lou Hunt, Ronald Lockart, Donna Russell, Kathy Harrison, Patricia Moulton, and Patricia Nickless who made the Honor Roll at the end of the year.

And so we ended our Sophomore Year, eagerly looking forward to a wonderfully active Junior Year.

JUNIOR YEAR--Carol Smeltzer

On September 5, 1962, fifty members of the graduating class of 1964 began their third year at Charlton High. The officers, elected in June, for this important year were president-Arthur Cote; vice-president-Patricia Nickless; secretary-Carol Smeltzer; and treasurer-Julie Miller. Donald Davidson was elected Student Council representative from Room 7. Class advisors were again Mrs. Mabel Fiske and Mr. Andrew Piwcio.

Our first successful social, money-making affair was our Junior Hop, held September 14. During the month of October, chocolate-covered cherries and assorted chocolates were sold. The class also sold candy bars during the basketball games. Each of these activities greatly contributed, not only to our treasury, but also to the dream of our Washington Trip.

May 3, 1963, will always be a date remembered by the Class of '64 - the night of our Junior Prom. The theme of the evening was "One Enchanted Evening," with music by George Gregory. Many hours-which do not seem like work now-went into our decorations: streamers in our class colors, emerald green, Nile green, and white; black silhouettes; and, above all, the roses. Thanks to the untiring efforts of Mrs. Emma Hammond, our Prom Committee advisor, and Mrs. Shiela Glynn, our Art Advisor, our Junior Prom was a huge success.

The Honor Roll for the Junior Year included the following: Carol Smeltzer; Highest Honors; Patricia Moulton, Patricia Nickless, Carol Stone, Kathy Harrison, Arthur Cote, Donna Russell, Patricia Snow, Mary Lou Hunt, Risto Babineau, Douglas Mitchell, and Patricia Vesey, Honors.

SENIOR YEAR--Patricia Vesey

In September, 1963, we started our Senior Year with fifty-one students. We were sorry to lose Mary Burns and Pat Duval. Our class officers were president-Royal Langlois; vice-president-Patricia Nickless; secretary-Patricia Vesey; treasurer-Julie Miller; and representative-Patricia Snow.

We are exceptionally proud of Carol Smeltzer, who made Highest Honors her Senior year, and of Carol Smeltzer and Patricia Moulton, who achieved Honors for four years; and we are also proud of all Senior Honor pupils: namely, Andy Burlingame, Betty Burlingame, Susan Clark, Arthur Cote, Kathy Harrison, Mary Lou Hunt, Dwight Mitchell, Douglas Mitchell, Ella Mitchell, Billy Packard, Donna Russell, Pat Snow, Carol Stone, and Pat Vesey.

On September 27, 1963, came our first fund-raising activity, our Senior Hop, which proved to be a social and financial success under the capable direction of our advisor, Mr. Andrew Piwcio.

Our Senior Play, Cornelia Otis Skinner's famous Broadway comedy-"Nuts in May"-ably directed by Mrs. Mabel Fiske, our advisor, was held on November 15. Pat Nickless, our leading lady as Cornelia Otis Skinner, was well-supported by these Seniors: Jonathan Vizard, Danny Hofford, Donna Russell, Pat Vesey, Andrew Burlingame, Carol Smeltzer, Julie Miller, Pat Moulton, Pat Snow, Mary Lou Hunt, Arthur Cote, Brian Dunn, and Donald Davidson. Cornelia's fans included Linda Ferguson, Kathy Harrison, Joan Gibeault, Carol Stone, Beverly Trifone, Elaine Fredericks, Ellen Boudreau, Ella Mitchell, and Susie Freudenthal.

Our Senior auction, on October 26, efficiently directed by our Principal, Mr. William Ball, and our advisor, Mr. Andrew Piwcio, with Mrs. Mabel Fiske in charge in the food department, was a huge success.

Because of the hard work of almost all Seniors and the untiring effort of our advisor, Mrs. Mabel Fiske, our Christmas Card sales substantially helped to swell our ever-growing Washington Fund. Ellen Boudreau, Royal Langlois, and Pat Snow competed for top sales honors, with Ellen receiving first prize of $25, and Royal, $10 for second prize.

We are justly proud of Pat Nickless, who was elected as our Student Government Day Representative; and of Julie Miller, who was selected as D.A.R. representative.

The Senior Supper, on February 8, because of the hard work of all Seniors, and the efforts of our co-chairmen - Brian Dunn and Jonathan Vizard - efficiently led by Principal William Ball and Mr. Andrew Piwcio, was also a great success.

Our wonderful Washington trip will always rank high among our Senior Year memories. All our projects this year involved hard work, but we gained much from our efforts and will always be thankful, for these efforts taught us the value of cooperation and hard work in reaching a goal, and they made us a much closer-knit class than we were.

We wish to thank all the faculty members, our school board, and townspeople for the help they gave to us, and we give a special and sincere thank you to Mr. William Ball, our principal; Mrs. Mabel Fiske and Mr. Andrew Piwcio, our class advisors; Mrs. Emma Hammond; Mrs. Shiela Glynn; and Mrs. Vera Bancroft for their patience, understanding, and hard work for us - the Class of 1964.

Class Prophecy

by Julia Miller

It is June 2, 1984, the day of our class reunion. It has been twenty years since I, Julia Miller, have been in Charlton, as I have been teaching the natives of Africa the art of bowling. Carol Smeltzer, my ice cream buddy, has promised to meet me at Charlton's airport, recently built by Edward Hebert and Douglas Mitchell.

As we pulled away from the airport, Carol told me she was an architect and was designing a new wing for the Masonic Home, where she still worked weekends. The new high school she had also designed was run by none other than Dennis Divoll, who was principal. She told me the vice-principal was Bradford Mantha; and Joan Gibeault, his everloving wife, was the secretary. Dennis had quite a staff of 1964 alumni working for him: namely, Pamela Meinsma, Shorthand teacher; Sharon Walker, School Nurse; Betty Burlingame, Home Economics teacher; Kathy Harrison, English teacher; and Donald Davidson, Physics teacher. In addition to being married to "Tootie" Madelle and having eight children, with another due any day, Don had two full time jobs.

Carol explained that Royal Langlois and Risto Babineau could not come tonight, for Royal was racing his Supercar in England, and Risto, his Simca in France.

Carol stopped her car where Carpentier's store had been, but this store was no longer Carpentier's, but now Charlie Schellbach's. He had the finest meat counter for miles around. As we were checking out, we were surprised to see the clerk was none other than Rose Ann Tebo. She told us that Susan and Francis Clark had gone into partnership and now owned the drug store down the street. She also told us that Donald McCarthy and his pal, Stanley Burlingame, who had, of course, married Pat Duval, were in a most successful partnership selling used cars.

Just then, Mrs. Carol Stone Boucher walked in and told us she owned the neighboring beauty salon called the Blue Stone. She said Linda Ferguson, who was a hearing and speech therapist in India, was next door having her hair done for tonight. While we were visiting with Carol, she told us that Pat Moulton's old habit of polishing her fingernails in class had been an asset, for she now owned a fingernail polish factory. Also William Packard, Mr. Hercules of 1984, was manager of the factory.

Mary Lou Hunt, who was head nurse at Harrington Hospital, was just coming out of the beauty parlor as we were going in. She informed us that it was doubtful whether she could come to the reunion, because she was treating Alan Booth, the famous soccer champion, for a broken toe, acquired when he accidentally tripped over the ball.

We decided to go across the street to see Robert Fitts, who owned the huge gas station located there. As we were crossing, we were nearly mowed down by a trailer truck. As I glanced up to shake my fist at the driver, I noticed he was none other than Ronald Lockhart. Dwight Mitchell, Robert's best mechanic, said that I was not to worry for Ronnie had never yet hit anything in the twenty years he had been driving like mad. As a reward he had been named Mr. Safe-Driver of the year.

Dwight said Buddy Drake owned a china shop and had a very able assistant, Richard Mondor. He said the secretary of the shop, Patricia Snow, was keeping a record, and as far as she knew neither of the boys had broken a dish since they had been in business.

As we were standing there, a car with three men inside pulled up. They were Andrew Burlingame, who was running for Governor of Massachusetts, and his campaign managers-Arthur Cote, famed scientist, and Brian Dunn, a mathematician at Harvard.

Arthur said Patricia Nickless, a medical technician in a Boston hospital, was playing the role of one in a Ben Casey show, soon to be seen on television. And I was surprised to hear that Ben Casey was now played by our own Daniel Hofford.

Donna Russell, a noted journalist, was now writing a story on Miss Personality of 1984, our own Ellen Boudreau. Mrs. Patricia Vesey Cooper, a portrait painter, was painting Ellen's picture.

Another car then pulled up with a couple in it. The driver was Philip Phillips, now a sweater manufacturer and an inventor in his spare time, and, of course, with him was his wife, the former Louise Thompson.

Phil had just seen Jonathan Vizard, who was the chief cook at Charlton's plushy restaurant, Susanne's Palace, owned and operated by Susanne Freudenthal. Susie's secretary was Ella Mitchell and her head waitress was Beverly Trifone, who had finally left "Ho Jo's."

Beverly's buddy, Elaine Frederick, was still working at Howard Johnson's, but now the work was no longer drudgery, for she was married to the boss. This man, to my surprise, was none other than Henry Hammond, who was in partnership with "Butchie" Bucharelli.

As we stood there talking and blocking traffic, I could hardly wait until evening, when I would see all my classmates assembled for the first time in twenty years.

"Last Will and Testament"

By

Susanne Freudenthal and Ella Mitchell

We, the Class of 1964, being of lawful age, of sound and disposing mind, memory, and judgment, do hereby make and declare this to be our last Will and Testament, to be administered as follows:

I, Risto Babineau, leave my job at "Ho Jo's" to anyone who needs it.

I, Alan Booth, leave my friendly attitude to Mr. Schiller.

I, Ellen Boudreau, leave Mr. Wellwood's Problems class, still talking.

I, Albert Bucharelli, leave this year, waiting for Carol to follow next year.

I, Andrew Burlingame, leave, still reading good books.

I, Betty Burlingame, leave my quiet ways to Dolly Konkol.

I, Stanley Burlingame, leave today, to go to the altar tomorrow.

I, Susan Clark, leave my courteous ways toward pupils and teachers to Eddy Anderson.

I, Francis Clark, leave, not knowing much more than when I started.

I, Arthur Cote, leave my high Merit Scholarship marks to Jimmy Hill.

I, Donald Davidson, leave without "Tootie."

I, Ralph Drake, leave all the girls in tears.

I, Dennis Divoll, leave, with Mr. Ball still yelling at me.

I, Brian Dunn, leave all my freckles to Donald Eastman.

I, Linda Ferguson, leave my kindness and cooperative attitude to Mike Lavalley.

I, Elaine Frederick, leave my long black hair to Bonnie Ziemba, who needs it more than I do.

I Susanne Freudenthal, leave my mischievous ways to Jeanie Thibaudeau.

I, Robert Fitts, leave, still trying to get out of work.

I, Joan Gibeault, leave, still arguing with Brad.

I, Kathryn Harrison, leave my frosted hair to Sally Lotti.

I, Henry Hammond, leave, because everyone else is leaving.

I, Edward Hebert, leave all my cars out of running order.

I, Daniel Hofford, leave my acting ability to next year's Senior Boys.

I, Mary Lou Hunt, leave, still looking for the boy of my dreams.

I, Royal Langlois, leave my car to the Driver Education Class.

I, Ronald Lockhart, leave, still chewing gum.

I, Bradford Mantha, leave, still looking for a job.

I, Donald McCarthy, leave, wondering why I came.

I, Pamela Meinsma, leave today, to become Mrs. Billings tomorrow.

I, Julia Miller, leave my position as bench warmer to anyone unlucky enough to get it.

I, Douglas Mitchell, leave my kindness to Dennis Hartwell.

I, Dwight Mitchell, leave my cars, still wrapped around a tree.

I, Ella Mitchell, leave my flirtatious ways to Christine Frederick.

I, Richard Mondor, leave my "brown-nosing" to Craig Butler.

I, Patricia Moulton, leave an excellent record behind me.

I, Patricia Nickless, leave the 7th and 8th grade boys with broken hearts.

I, Philip Phillips, leave Louise, still holding my ring.

I, William Packard, leave all my ways with the girls to Joseph Silvestri.

I, Donna Russell, leave my "gym" clothes to Shiela Beeber.

I, Charles Schellbach, leave, still half-asleep.

I, Carol Smeltzer, leave some of my red hair to Mr. Ball.

I, Patricia Snow, leave my ability to tell jokes to Judy Truscott.

I, Carol Stone, leave, because Danny did.

I, Rose Ann Tebo, leave my studious ways to Darlene Mondor.

I, Beverly Trifone, leave, still riding in the same White Ford.

I, Patricia Vesey, leave my peroxide bottle to Sandy Prunier.

I, Jonathan Vizard, leave all my wonderland books to Dennis Moriarty.

I, Sharon Walker, leave my ability to study to Richard Ferguson.

We, the Senior Class, leave to all faculty members our sincere appreciation for all their efforts in our behalf.

Class Song

by Pat Nickless and Jonathan Vizard

Dedicated to Mrs. Mabel Fiske and Mr. Andrew Piwcio, our class advisors.

Tune: UNCHAINED MELODY

The time has come for us to say good-bye to all of you-
Our friends throughout the years.
We thank you for your guidance and your help in all we've done
Along the way.

Our Memories
Of our past years
Will stay with us always.

Now we look ahead to the Future,
To the steppingstones to Happiness.
We have faith and strength to walk with, to walk with
And to meet the challenges ahead.

We leave the key
To those who will follow us at Charlton High.

We say farewell-
Our best to you-
This final hour-tonight.

CLASS MOTTO: Not The Sunset But The Dawn.
CLASS COLORS: Emerald Green, Nile Green, And White
CLASS FLOWER: American Beauty Rose

COMMENCEMENT

Reflect, if you will, on the word Commencement. Not only does it mean a celebration of a successful four years, but also a "beginning of graduation life." Actually, at your High School Commencement you are starting to assume life's major responsibilities. The diploma you receive is not only a reward, but a passport to this future responsibility. American Optical Company congratulates you on your "Commencement." Our best wishes go with you as you assume new duties and obligations that will further mold into a successful American Citizen.

 Congratulations!

Since 1833 ... Better Vision for Better Living

A black and white illustration featuring a classical building with a portico supported by several columns. In the foreground, a large, stylized ribbon bow is superimposed over the scene. The background includes some clouds.

We Salute You!

Congratulations and the best of luck! We at Loring are proud of the part we have had in helping to make your classbook a permanent reminder of your school years, recording with photographs one of the happiest and most exciting times of your life! We hope that, just as you have chosen us as your class photographer, you will continue to think of Loring Studios when you want photographs to help you remember other momentous days to come! When you choose Loring portraits, you are sure of the finest craftsmanship at the most moderate prices!
